On September 21st, 2017 at approximately 10:11 AM the Burlington Police received multiple 911 calls reporting a fight in City Hall Park. The fight was described as involving several persons one of which was armed with a weapon.

Officers were able to determine that John C. Tubbs (27 YOA) who is transient, was intoxicated and attempting to engage a number of individuals in a physical confrontation. Tubbs was reported to be wrestling with one male at which time Todd Sicca attempted to break up the altercation. When Sicca intervened, a physical altercation broke out between him and Tubbs. As the fight progressed, Sicca pulled a small knife in an attempt to protect himself. In turn, Tubbs presented a large fixed blade knife and raised it above his head in a threatening manner. As police arrived on scene Tubbs dropped the knife which was later recovered.

Tubbs was arrested for Disorderly Conduct and Aggravated Assault. Officers noted that Tubbs was intoxicated at the time of his arrest. Tubbs was transported to Chittenden Superior Court for arraignment. Anyone that witnessed this incident is asked to call Ofc. O'Leary at (802) 540-2358.
